Property Description

Discover this boutique preconstruction complex of only 12 exclusive units, just steps from the ocean and surrounded by lush tropical beauty. Located in Playa Bejuco, one of Costa Rica's most charming beaches, it blends comfort, design, and connection with nature — ideal for both relaxation and investment. Each residence is thoughtfully designed to provide a perfect balance between personal enjoyment and vacation rental income, offering modern architecture, open layouts, large windows, and balconies that bring in light and ocean breeze. Construction is set to begin in February 2026, with delivery scheduled for February 2027. The three-story building will feature a pool surrounded by greenery, a lounge area, BBQ and social space, and a fitness zone — all designed to enhance the lifestyle experience. This exclusive location offers everything within easy reach: just a short walk to a beautiful, uncrowded beach, 45 minutes from Manuel Antonio National Park, and 2 hours from Juan Santamaría International Airport.
